

PPPs and CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS

Will they feed the hungry?

2nd August 2009

Arun Gupta

Joseph Stiglitz, 2007

Defines Governance : “.How decisions are made in whose interest”..

In Making Globalization Work

The Global Compact

In January 1999, the Secretary-General of the UN, Kofi Annan, called upon the business community to join the UN in a Global Compact in which business would “embrace and enact” nine principles of good conduct in the areas of human rights, .....

The World Health Organisation (WHO)

“...in 1998 after the election of Gro Harlem Brundtland as WHO’s Director-General that interactions with the corporate sector started to be promoted as an important part of organisational policy....”

Voices !

- “Interactions between the private sector and the United Nations(UN) have exponentially increased during the past five years”

(Eeva Ollilla, 2003 Global Public Health - Related Public Private Partnerships and the United Nations : Policy Brief)

Who gains
from GAIN?
Corporations NOT
children

...es:
...e from
...ilever,
...t and

Our Children need
Public Health
Solutions not
Market Friends

Don't eat our Child's Food:
Feed the Child
Not Your Pockets

Keep off
INDIA
go back
GAIN

Save Babies: Prevent Interference from Danone, Unilever, Wockhardt and Cargill

Indian policies in India

Our Children need
Public Health
Solutions not
Market Friends

Children's health care